Australian Standing Stones

The ancient Celts who lived across Europe and the British Isles 2600 years ago raised stones as calendars to mark the seasons. Our Standing Stones are a modern stone circle that celebrate the Celtic nations whose descendants contributed to settlement in Australia. Be transported to another time when myths and legends like fairies, leprechauns and enchanted harps were popular folklore. Take a self-guided tour of 38 stones by picking up a brochure from the Visitor Information Centre.
